

Nabal

Nabal was a rich, ill tempered, drunken fool. David came to ask Nabal for food for his men as they had protected Nabal's farm interests during shearing season. Nabal refused. Abigail, his wife, recognised the danger that Nabal had put them all in and hurried to correct the wrong. Nabal suffered a heart attack when she told him what had happened.

Farmer

Learn more about Nabal in the:
OLD TESTAMENT
1 Samuel 25: 2-42

Did you find the hidden cross?

Free Christian
Illustrations

